Missions Faith Promise For the 60th year in a row, God has provided for RCC to support missionaries locally, regionally and across the world through Faith Promise. We were blessed to hear from Ron Riley, the Director of Cookson Hills Ministries one of our missions which serves at-risk kids. He attended Ozark Christian College -- another of our missions. We collected about $97,000 in commitments to support missions in 2027. We thank the Lord for His provision and for His ongoing love. We thank Him that we can do His work through Faith Promise.

Announcements

Ministry in Need The nursing home staff misses the presence of the church people. They asked if we could help pass water again. It would be once a month on a Wednesday at 10:00. It would take 2 to 4 people and probably be around one hour. They would also like anyone to help with special holiday activities. This is an opportunity to be the church to the staff and the residents. If you would be willing to do this, please let Cherilyn know. Thank You!

Peak of the Week: Meal at 5:15, Groups at 6:00 PM. Food, Community and Groups for all Ages.

Leadership Meeting: First Sunday of every month. 4:00 PM

Candy Donations: This year RCC will be handing out candy and information about the church, to children on Halloween. Please donate fun sized, individually wrapped candy and leave it in the barrel in the fellowship hall.

Camp Family Fellowship: does not meet in November or December

Bridal Shower: The committee will be hosting a shower for Cierrah Garret, November 7 at 10:00 AM. She would like home and holiday decorations. A light brunch will be served.

Blowing It

Psalm 103:18-12

It happens to all of us. Teachers as well as students. Cops as well as criminals. Parents as well as children. The diligent as well as the lazy. Not even presidents are immune. Or corporations heads who earn six figure salaries.

What am I talking about? Making mistakes, that's what. Doing the wrong thing, usually with the best motives. And it happens with remarkable regularity.

Let's face it, success is overrated. All of us crave it despite daily proof that humanity's real genius lies in quite the opposite direction. It's really incompetence that we're all good at. We've all blown it. So, welcome to the club. And I've said for years that God is often easier to get along with that His people. Why do we kick each other when we're down? Pour salt into open wounds? Keep records of each other's failures? because we're not like God.

Here's some good news:

The Lord is compassionate and merciful, slow to get angry and filled with unfailing love. He will not constantly accuse us, nor remain angry forever. He does not punish us all for our sins; He does not deal harshly with us, as we deserve. For His unfailing love toward those who fear Him is as great as the height of the heavens and the earth. He has removed our sins as far from us as the east is from the west. Psalm 103:8-12

If our perfect Lord is gracious enough to take our worst failures and forgive them, bury them in the depths of the sea, then it's high time we give each other a break. In fact, He promises full acceptance alone with full forgiveness in print for all to read...without an erratum sheet attached. After all, imperfection is one of the few things we still have in common. It links us close together in the same family! He doesn't lower the boom in response to our blunders. He offers grace upon grace. And then forgets about it. Praise Him!
