True faith and courage are like a kite ---- an opposing wind raises it higher.

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Isaiah 40:31

Do I Matter?

For you are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus.
Galatians 3:26

Out of the dark he pounced, the Man" with a capital M, for this was no common man. through the night the two fought, until the Man decided to settle the matter once and for all. With a deft jab to the hip, the Man left Jacob writhing. The jolt cleared Jacob's vision, and he realized, I'm tangling with God. He grabbed hold of the Man and held on for dear life. "I will not let you go unless You bless me!" he insisted (Genesis 32:26)

What are we to make of this? God is the mud. A tooth-and-nail fight to the finish. Bizarre. But blessing request? I get that part. Jacob is asking, "God, do I matter to you?"

I would ask the same question. Given a face-to-face encounter with the Man, I'd venture, "Do you know who I am? In the great scheme of things, do I count for anything:"

So many messages tell us we don't. We get laid off at work, turned away by school. Everything from acne to Alzheimer's leaves us feeling like the girl with no date to the prom.

We react. We validate our existence with a flurry of activity. We do more, buy more, achieve more. Like Jacob, we wrestle. All our wrestling, I suppose, are merely asking this question: "Do I matter?"

All of grace, I believe, is God's definitive reply: "Blessed, my child. I accept you. I have adopted you into my family."

You matter to God.
