Faith Promise -- Praise God! Roseville Christian Church came humbly before the throne of God asking for blessing on the missionaries we support. On Faith Promise Sunday, Oct. 26, 2025, God again blessed these missions with the financial support they need. The commitment cards we have received total $110,650, exceeding our goal. Each commitment is a promise between a believer and God for provision in the upcoming year. Remember that these commitments start the first week of Dec. 2025. Thank you to each of you who supported Faith Promise with prayer and giving. We thank God that our missions were blessed and we ask that you please keep praying for each of the missions.

Read Psalm 100

We are entering our season of Thanksgiving, a time when we look at what we are truly thankful for in our lives. In our new Sermon Series, we will be looking at the beginnings of a few of the letters of Paul. Paul so often opens his letters by giving thanks for something. Paul shows us through his letters what it means to truly give thanks. As we move into November and the Thanksgiving season, look for ways to make giving thanks a priority in your life, a thing of 1st importance, because thanking God for all of his many blessings draws us closer to him.
